Day 03

Cusco – Vinicunca – Rainbow Mountain Full Day.

We will be picked up from our accommodation in Cusco, and after two hours of traveling by car, we will take a break in Pitumarca for breakfast. Afterwards, we will continue our journey to Chiripampa to buy the access ticket for Rainbow Mountain (10 soles). This unique mountain is located deep in the heart of the longest mountain range on the planet.

We will have to walk for roughly two hours until we reach this spectacular mountain, also known as the mountain of seven colors or Vinicunca. Once we arrive here, we will have time to enjoy the fascinating patterns of Vinicunca and take a good look around at the great panoramic view we have from here. We will also have ample time to take photos. After fully appreciating this natural masterpiece, we will begin our descent back to Pitumarca.

Back in Pitumarca, we will stop to have lunch. After this break, we will start our return to the center of Cusco, where we will arrive around 6:30 pm.

Day 05

Santa Maria - Quellomayo -
Santa Teresa - Cocalmayo Hot Spring
(Hiking, Hot Spring)

We walk along the riverbanks and start climbing. On our way, we'll see small coffee plantations, fruit trees, etc. In this area, it is possible to see many types of plants, orchids, and birds. We will observe the beauties of the high forest, which is a paradise of biodiversity in the Inca jungle route. After arriving at the top of the mountain, we will see the whole valley of Urubamba. The group will descend to arrive at the village Quellomayo. After the break, we will trek for 3 hours, going through farms, rivers, waterfalls until arriving at the hot water springs in Santa Teresa. We will continue to walk until reaching the town Santa Teresa.

Cocalmayo offers several relaxing crystal-clear hot springs, each with its own temperature. The sound of the river and the stars at night time make it a perfect scenery. After the hot springs (Cocalmayo), the group will continue to walk for about 40 minutes (or take a bus if you'd prefer) until reaching the town of Santa Teresa where you will check into a nice comfortable hotel. After dinner, you all are invited to visit one of the bars to hang out with the other members of the group.

Day 07

Aguas Calientes – Machu Picchu – Ollantaytambo – Cusco

WOn the final day of our Inca Jungle tour, we get up around 4:00 am. After getting ready, we will head to Machu Picchu. Our trek will follow an ascending path through the high forest. After registering at the entrance control around 6:00 am, we will have a private guide leading us through the Inca citadel for about 1 ½ hours.

For Machu Picchu Montaña, it will take you about 2 hours to go up, and it's not as steep as Huayna Picchu, and even higher! Please note that you have to go before a certain time, so don't forget to ask your guide which time you have been issued.

You will have until 5:00 pm to explore Machu Picchu on your own, after which the guards will ask you to leave. In the afternoon, depending on the train departure time, you will descend walking on your own to the town of Aguas Calientes to take the train back to Ollantaytambo, where the group will be picked up and transferred to Cusco city.
